MONEY MADNESS CHALLENGE GRADES 5 AND 6

A nation can't survive on ideas alone and Alexander Hamilton desperately wants the United States of America to survive. But there are a million and one challenges facing the new nation and they all boil down to money! In this hour-long facilitated experience, students will have fun exploring Hamilton's Philadelphia right here in the museum, completing challenges, solving puzzles and figuring out which decisions will help get this young country headed down a path to economic success.

BECOMING HAMILTON GRADES 7 AND 8

How do you become one of 18th Century America's most loved and hated men? How do you rise from a childhood of abandonment and poverty to become one of the most powerful men in a brand new nation? In short, how do you become Alexander Hamilton? In this hour-long facilitated experience, students will explore how a "young, scrappy and hungry" teenager from the islands used hard work and luck to create a future for himself and his adopted nation. With scenes of 18th Century Philadelphia as their backdrop, students will discover the challenges Hamilton faced and the decisions he made as the nation came of age. Throughout, they'll ask themselves, did he get it right?

HAMILTON WAS HERE — FREE-EXPLORATION GRADES 9 THROUGH 12

Students will explore the experience's five main areas and delve into Hamilton's life in the military, as a political figure, and as the architect of our nation's financial system. They will navigate through playful interactives, scenic environments, and games. Museum education staff will be on-hand to answer questions and help students get the most out of the experience.

Pre- and Post- Visit Materials will be available on our website, but are not required for an enjoyable in-museum experience.
