

THANK YOU for your service!

Washington's Standard, the blue silk flag that marked General George Washington's presence on the battlefield during the Revolutionary War, is in the collection of the Museum of the American Revolution in Philadelphia.